

Facilitating Discussions and Building Bridges across Differences
10+ Years' Experience as a Program Director

Director of Refugee Program, Interfaith Action of Central Texas, 10/2022-present

Supervised diverse 16-person staff offering English language instruction, youth mentoring, and health & wellness classes and gatherings. Developed iBelong program. Procured and administered 2.8M in grants annually. Tripled size of program. Served over 3000 refugees

Director of Liberal Studies and Chair of Interfaith Leadership, Texas Wesleyan, 6/2017-8/21

Collaborated with diverse constituencies to develop and implement curricular and co-curricular intercultural competency programs, culminating in new minor. Managed and evaluated 60-major LBS program. Supervised full-time advisor and faculty volunteers

Director of Youth & Young Adult Ministries, St. Michael's Episcopal Church Austin, 6/94-2/2002

Grew group by 344%. Developed programs, fostered dialogue, and gave presentations. Organized events & conferences. Led local and international community service projects and trips. Recruited, trained, & managed staff & volunteers. Assisted with $5M capital campaign

Educating on Interfaith Leadership, Mindfulness Practice, and Eco-Social Justice Engagement
10+ Years' Experience as a Religion Professor

Past President, American Academy of Religion Southwest Region, 3/2022-3/2023

Served in four-year leadership cycle first as vice president, president-elect, then president, and past president of the SW region of the premier professional organization enhancing the public understanding of religion. Led annual conferences, bringing renowned speakers

Adjunct Instructor, TCU, 1-5/2022

Co-taught The Art and Science of Human Flourishing, a mindfulness and SEL-based pilot course providing research-proven skills and values-based learning to promote resilience, compassion, and flourishing of the whole person, society, and planet

Assistant Professor of Philosophy and Religion, Texas Wesleyan University, 8/2015-8/2021

Taught ethics, race/gender, and interfaith leadership. Led internship program and mentored student groups. Chaired numerous committees, including Environmental Awareness. Wrote & administered grants. Awarded "Top Prof" 2016. Average evals last two years 4.8/5

Visiting Assistant Professor of Religious Studies, St. Mary's College of Maryland, 8/12-7/15

Taught world religions, eco-feminism, and religion & neuroscience. Served as Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Advisory Committee Member

Additional Teaching Experience

Sarofim Teaching Fellow, Rice University, 7/2011-6/2012

Adjunct Faculty, The University of Houston-Clear Lake, 8/2009-12/2010

Lecteur d'Anglais, Université Rennes 2 Haute Bretagne, Rennes, France, 8/2007-8/2008

Additional Nonprofit Experience

Contract Staffer, S Corp Temporary Agency, Washington, DC, 7/2005-7/2006

Positions Held: Office Manager, Ovarian Cancer National Alliance; Executive Assistant to Vice President of Marketing & Public Relations, Asbury Communities Inc.; Administrative Assistant, National Institutes of Health, Office of Strategic Management Planning

- Limited working proficiency in French and Spanish
- AVID high-engagement teaching methods for college learners trained
- Online teaching certified with over six years' experience in online and hybrid modalities
- Tech savvy and experienced with digital media and workflow & donor management systems
- Numerous publications and presentations

Chad Pevateaux

Empowering people to collaborate for the common good

Essential Cohort
Leadership Austin
2025

PhD
Rice University
Department of Religion
Houston, TX, 2006-13

MDiv
Harvard University
Divinity School
Cambridge, MA, 2002-2005

BA
Southwestern University
English and History
Georgetown, TX, 1992-97

pevateaux@gmail.com
he/him
pevateaux.com